PROFITS AND LOSSES; DISTRIBUTIONS7.1 Allocations of Profits and Losses.

A. Profits and losses shall be allocated to each Partner based on his Percentage Interest.

B. Where a distribution of an asset is made in the manner described in Section 734(a) of the Code, or where a transfer of an Interest permitted by this Agreement is made in the manner described in Section 743(a) of the Code, the General Partner in her discretion may file on behalf of the Partnership, upon the request of any Partner affected thereby, an election under Section 754 of the Code in accordance with the procedures set forth in the applicable Income Tax Regulations.

C. Except as provided in Section 7.1.D hereof, whenever the profits and losses of the Partnership allocable under this Section 7.1 consist of items of different character for tax purposes (e.g., ordinary income, long-term capital gain, interest expense, etc.), the profits and losses of the Partnership allocable to each Partner shall be deemed to include his pro rata share of each such item, in accordance with his share of the profits and losses from the transaction in which such profits and losses were realized.

D. Notwithstanding Section 7.1.C hereof, if the Partnership realizes depreciation recapture taxable as ordinary income under Section 1245 or 1250 (or other comparable sections) of the Code, the income allocable under Section 7.1.A hereof to any Partner shall be deemed to include that portion of such depreciation recapture as the total amount of deductions for depreciation or amortization of the Partnership's assets previously allocated to such Partner reduced by any depreciation recapture previously allocated to such Partner (or to any predecessor in interest of such Partner) with respect to such assets bears to the total amount of deductions for depreciation or amortization of such assets previously allocated to both Partners similarly reduced by all depreciation recapture previously allocated to both Partners with respect to such assets, and the balance of any profits and losses realized by that Partner shall be deemed to consist of a pro-rata share of each of the other income items realized by the Partnership as provided in Section 7.1.C hereof.

7.2 Distribution and Application of Cash.

A. Except as otherwise provided by this Agreement or required by law, cash distributions (other than Capital Proceeds) shall be made pro rata to the Partners on the following bases at such time and in such amounts as the General Partner in her sole discretion shall determine after giving effect to the following considerations:

( i) the cash requirements of the business of the Partnership including the reinvestment of the assets of the Partnership;

( ii) the Federal, state and local income tax liability of each of the Partners which tax liability is attributable to each Partner's Interest in the Partnership; and

(iii) the general income needs of each of the Partners.

B. Cash distributions (other than Capital Proceeds) shall be applied in the following order of priority:

A. Upon liquidation of the Partnership pursuant to Article IX hereof, profits and losses realized upon such liquidation shall be allocated pursuant to Section 7.1.A hereof and any asset shall be distributed in cash or in kind in accordance with the provisions of Section 9.4 hereof. With respect to assets distributed in kind to the Partners, (i) any unrealized appreciation or unrealized depreciation in the values of such assets shall be deemed to be profits and losses realized by the Partnership immediately prior to the liquidation (for the purposes of this Section 7.3.A, "unrealized appreciation" or "unrealized depreciation" shall mean the difference between the appraised fair market value of such assets [as determined pursuant to Section 9.4 hereof] and the Partnership's basis for such assets), (ii) such profits and losses shall be allocated to the Partner or Partners who received such assets in the same proportions as their interests in such assets after such distribution and (iii) any property so distributed shall be treated as a distribution to the Partners pursuant to Section 7.2.C hereof to the extent of the aforesaid appraised fair market value less the amount of any liability related thereto. Nothing contained in this Section 7.3.A or elsewhere in this Agreement is intended to treat or cause such distributions to be treated as sales for value.

B. For income tax purposes, if the Partnership in any year realizes income or is allowed a deduction (including additional depreciation or amortization as a result of adding an item to its basis) as a result of the transfer of an interest in property to or from a Partner, the difference between the amount taken into account for tax purposes and the amount otherwise taken into account under this Agreement shall be allocated solely to such Partner.

C. The Percentage Interest of each Partner shall be as follows:

Partner	Percentage Interest
Sklar	63.4921%

	100.0000%

TRANSFER OF INTERESTS; WITHDRAWAL

8.1 Prohibition Without Consent. Except as provided in Section 8.3 hereof, a Partner may not withdraw voluntarily from the Partnership or Assign, pledge or encumber all or any part of his Interest, without the written consent of the other Partner, provided, however, that the Limited Partner may Assign all or a part of its Interest to Lois Michelle Weinstein who shall, subject only to Sections 8.3.B. and C. hereof, automatically become a Substitute Partner.

8.2 Death or Disability of the Limited Partner.

A. The death, insanity, incompetency or Bankruptcy of the Limited Partner shall not terminate or dissolve the Partnership.

B. Upon the occurrence of such event with respect to any Partner, the executor, administrator, guardian, committee, trustee or other legal representative or successor in interest of such Partner shall have the rights of such Partner subject to the provisions of this Agreement. Such successor in interest shall not become a Substitute Partner except upon compliance with the provisions of Sections 8.3 and 8.4 hereof.

8.3 Substitute Partner; Admission. No Partner shall have any right to substitute an Assignee as a Partner in his place without the prior written permission of the other Partner. Any purported substitution of an Assignee as a Partner without such consent shall be void ab initio and shall not bind the Partnership. The consent of the Partners to an Assignment under Section 8.1 hereof shall not, in and of itself, constitute permission under this Section 8.3. Any Assignee shall not be admitted as a Substitute Partner unless (A) the Assignor shall have indicated such intention of substitution in the instrument effecting the Assignment and the Assignee expressly agrees to be bound, to the same extent as the other Partners, by the provisions of this Agreement and any other documents required in connection therewith and to assume the obligations of the Assignor hereunder, (B) the Assignor and the Assignee shall have executed or delivered such other instruments as the General Partner may deem necessary or desirable to effectuate such admission and (C) the Assignee shall have agreed to pay, as the General Partner shall determine, all reasonable expenses and legal fees relating to the Assignment and his admission as a Substitute Partner, including, but not limited to, the cost of any amendment to the Certificate necessary to effect such admission.

8.4 Assignees.

A. Any person who acquires in any manner whatsoever any Interest, irrespective of whether such person has accepted and adopted in writing the terms and provisions of this Agreement, shall be deemed by the acceptance of the benefit of the acquisition thereof to have agreed to be subject to and bound by all the obligations of this Agreement that any predecessor in interest of such person was subject to or bound by. A person acquiring an Interest, including the personal representatives and heirs of a deceased Partner, shall have only such rights, and shall be subject to all the obligations, as are set forth in this Agreement; and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such person shall not have any right to have the value of his Interest ascertained or receive the value of such Interest or, in lieu thereof, profits attributable to any right in the Partnership, except as herein set forth.

B. Any Assignee of an Interest pursuant to an Assignment satisfying the conditions of this Article VIII who does not become a Substitute Partner in accordance with Section 8.3 hereof shall have the right to receive the same share of the profits and losses and distributions of the Partnership to which his Assignor would have been entitled. If such Assignee desires to make an Assignment of his Interest, he shall be subject to all the provisions of this Article VIII to the same extent and in the same manner as any Partner desiring to make an Assignment.

C. Any Partner who shall Assign all of his Interest shall cease to be a Partner and shall no longer have any rights or privileges of a Partner except that, unless and until his Assignee is admitted to the Partnership as a Substitute Partner in accordance with Section 8.3 hereof, such Assignor shall retain all rights and be subject to all obligations under the Uniform Act.

D. In the event that an Assignment shall be made, there shall be filed with the Partnership a duly executed and acknowledged counterpart of the instrument making such Assignment. Such instrument must evidence the written acceptance of the Assignee to all the terms and provisions of this Agreement. Except as provided in Section 8.4B, if such an instrument is not so filed, the Partnership need not recognize any such purported Assignment for any purpose.

8.5 Effect of Withdrawal; Election to Continue Business. Upon the withdrawal or Bankruptcy of the General Partner, the General Partner or her legal representative shall promptly notify the Limited Partner of such event and the Partnership shall be dissolved and terminated unless the Limited Partner elects to continue the business of the Partnership, in which case the Partnership shall not dissolve or terminate. If the Limited Partner elects to continue the business of the partnership, either a new general partner shall be admitted to the Partnership or the Partnership shall be reconstituted as a general partnership. After such event shall occur, the General Partner or her legal representative shall take no part in the management of the Partnership, but shall retain her Percentage Interest in the profits and losses and cash distributions. The withdrawal of the General Partner shall not be deemed to be effective until the expiration of 90 days from the day on which such notice has been mailed to the Limited Partner. The General Partner shall remain liable for obligations incurred by her under this Agreement through the effective date of her withdrawal, whether such withdrawal shall be voluntary or involuntary or whether in compliance with or in violation of this Agreement.

8.6 Effect of Death or Incompetency of General Partner. Upon the occurrence of the death or incompetency of the General Partner, the legal representative of the General Partner shall promptly notify the Limited Partner of such event. The Partnership shall not be dissolved or terminated and the Limited Partner hereby consents to continuation of the business of the Partnership as follows:

(i) The legal representative of the General Partner on behalf of the General Partner's estate, shall succeed to all of the rights, power and authority of the General Partner and shall manage the Partnership upon the same terms and conditions as would have prevailed if the General Partner had not died or become incompetent.

(ii) The Estate of the General Partner shall succeed to the General Partner's Interest in the Partnership and shall execute and deliver such instruments, certificates and other documents as may be necessary or desirable to effectuate the admission of the Estate as the General Partner.

(iii) The Limited Partner agrees to execute and deliver all documents which may be necessary or desirable to provide for the continuation of the business of the Partnership on the terms provided in this Section 8.6.

8.7 Options.

A. After one (1) year from the date of this Agreement, the General Partner shall at anytime have the right to purchase, and the Limited Partner shall at anytime have the right to cause the General Partner to purchase the Interest of the Limited Partner, provided, however, that for a period of two (2) years from the date of death of the General Partner, the Limited Partner shall not be permitted to require the General Partner to purchase, and the General Partner shall not have the right to purchase, the Interest of the Limited Partner. If at the time of the death of the General Partner an Option Notice has been given by the Limited Partner to the General Partner or by the General Partner to the Limited Partner but the purchase price has not been determined in accordance with Section 8.7.B. hereof, such Option Notice shall become null and void and no further Option Notice shall be given by either the General Partner or Limited Partner until the expiration of two (2) years from the date of death of the General Partner. Notice of the exercise of the foregoing rights shall be given by a notice from the Limited Partner to the General Partner, or vice versa, as the case may be. The purchase price for the Limited Partner Interest shall be as specified in Section 8.7.B hereof and the purchase of the Limited Partner Interest shall take place at the offices of the Partnership (the "Closing") within 60 days after the purchase price thereof is determined in accordance with Section 8.7.B hereof.

The purchase price shall be paid as follows: an amount thereof equal to the Limited Partner's Percentage Interest in the cash, liquid assets and marketable securities of the Partnership on the date the purchase price is determined ("Cash Assets") plus 10% of an amount determined by deducting from the purchase price the amount of the Cash Assets, in cash or certified check at the Closing; the balance, by the execution and delivery of a promissory note (the "Note") payable to the order of the Limited Partner at a New York bank, dated as of the Closing, payable in annual installments of principal, each in the amount of one-ninth of the initial principal amount of the Note with interest payable quarterly on the unpaid balance at the Prime Rate on the first day of each quarter commencing with the date of Closing. The Note shall also provide for mandatory prepayment of an amount not to exceed 36.5079% of any Capital Proceeds received by the Partnership. Any prepayments under the Note shall be applied on account of the last installment becoming due. In the event of default as to the timely payment of interest and principal on the Note or in the event of the Bankruptcy of the Partnership or the General Partner, the Note shall, upon the election of the Limited Partner, become immediately due and payable upon fifteen (15) days' notice. As collateral security for the Note, the Partnership shall provide for a mortgage covering the Property and any other real property of the Partnership, subordinated to any existing mortgage covering such property and providing for subordination for any future mortgage thereon so long as the proceeds thereof shall be used to prepay the Note in accordance with this Section.

At the Closing, the General Partner shall deliver to the Limited Partner an agreement of indemnification to save the Limited Partner harmless from and against any cost, loss, damage or expense (including reasonable professional fees) arising by reason of any debts, liabilities or obligations of the Partnership owing as of the date of the Closing, and by reason of any transaction by, for or on behalf of the Partnership occurring prior to such date, and by reason of any matter or thing done, suffered or transacted under the Partnership name subsequent to such date.

B. The purchase price for the Limited Partner Interest shall be the Capital Account of the Limited Partner determined as of the close of business on the date that the Option Notice is given, subject to the following provisions:

The Limited Partners Capital Account shall be computed by the Accountant, in accordance with accounting principles regularly followed by the Partnership, and in cases not covered by such practices, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and shall include and reflect the Limited Partners Capital Account as of the end of the last fiscal year as shown on the books and records of the Partnership, increased or decreased by the Limited Partners Interest in profits or losses for the period from the beginning of the fiscal year in which the Option Notice is given until the date that the Option Notice is given, and increased by contributions and decreased by withdrawals. For purposes of this Section 8.7.B., any unrealized appreciation or unrealized depreciation in the value of the assets of the Partnership shall be deemed to be profits and losses realized by the Partnership immediately prior to the date of the Option Notice. The terms "unrealized appreciation" or "unrealized depreciation" shall mean the difference between the fair market value of such assets and the Partnership basis for such assets. In determining the fair market value of the Partnership's assets, other than real property or interests in real property, the Accountant shall use the principles set forth in Treasury Regulation §20.2031 with no value for goodwill. In determining the fair market value of the real property or interests in real property owned by the Partnership, the Accountant shall rely upon any written evaluation agreed upon and subscribed by all of the Partners or shall use the written appraisal of an appraiser chosen by the mutual agreement of all of the Partners, provided, however, that if the Partners cannot mutually agree upon an appraiser within 15 days after the Option Notice is given, the General Partner shall (by vote of a majority in interest of the General Partners), and the Limited Partners shall (by vote of a majority in interest of the Limited Partners) appoint an appraiser and the two appraisers so chosen shall select a third appraiser and such value shall be determined by averaging the two (2) closest appraisals. The expenses of any appraiser shall be borne by the Partnership. The General Partner shall make available to the appraisers all relevant financial and other information concerning the business and assets of the Partnership including the terms and conditions of any bona fide offer received by the Partnership from third parties for the purchase of the Property or the Partnership's other real property assets.

A statement showing the Capital Account of the Limited Partner as so adjusted and the supporting items (including, without limitation, a copy of the appraisal(s) relied on) shall be completed by the Accountant and copies delivered to the Partners no later than 90 days after the date the Option Notice is given which date shall be deemed to be the date on which the purchase price is determined. The amount of the Limited Partner's Capital Account as adjusted to reflect the fair market value of the Partnership assets, as set out in the Accountant's statement, shall constitute and be deemed to be the purchase price for the Limited Partnership Interest, binding upon all parties hereto.

If during the period of one (1) year subsequent to a Closing pursuant to an Option Notice delivered by the General Partner to the Limited Partner the Property or any other real property asset of the Partnership is sold at a price which exceeds the agreed or appraised value of such property under Section 8.7.B. hereof so that the purchase price of the Limited Partner's Interest would be increased had the actual sales price been used in Section 8.7.B. in lieu of the value actually used, then the amount of such increase shall be deemed to be additional purchase price under Section 8.7.B. hereof and the full amount of such increase shall be added to the then amount of the Note theretofore issued pursuant to Section 8.7.A. Any such increase shall not limit or restrict the Partnership's obligations to make mandatory prepayments of the Note in accordance with Section 8.7.A. hereof.

C. During the period between the giving of the Option Notice and the date of the Closing (or the nullification of the Option Notice pursuant to Section 8.7.A. hereof), the Limited Partner shall continue to be entitled to the allocation of profits and losses provided in Section 7.1 and the distributions and application of cash provided in Section 7.2, and, if Lois Michelle Weinstein is employed by the Partnership at the date of the Option Notice, the terms of such employment shall not be changed adversely to her. Any changes in the Limited Partner's Capital Account arising from the allocation of profits or losses shall be reflected in the purchase price payable at the Closing. If any arms-length transaction giving rise to Capital Proceeds occurs between the Option Notice and the date of the Closing, the valuation of the property involved in such transaction shall, for purposes of determining the purchase price pursuant to Section 8.7.B. hereof, be adjusted to reflect such transaction, and any Capital Proceeds arising from such transaction which are distributed to the Limited Partner prior to the Closing shall be considered to be prepayment of the amount otherwise payable at the Closing.

8.8 Additional Partners. Subject to the provisions of Sections 8.1 and 8.3 hereof, no additional Partners shall be admitted without the consent of both Partners.

8.9 Amendment of Certificate. Upon the admission of a Substitute Partner or an additional partner or the withdrawal of a Partner, an amendment to the Certificate reflecting such admission or withdrawal shall be filed as required by the Uniform Act.

8.10 Survival of Liabilities. It is expressly understood that no Assignment, pledge or encumbrance of a Partner's Interest, even if it results in the substitution of the Assignee as a Partner, shall release the Partner from any liability to the Partnership which shall survive such Assignment, pledge or encumbrance, including those set forth in the Uniform Act.

ARTICLE IX

DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION OF THE PARTNERSHIP

9.1 Events Which Cause a Dissolution. The Partnership shall continue in full force and effect until December 31, 2050, except that the Partnership shall be dissolved prior thereto upon the happening of any of the following events:

A. An election to dissolve the Partnership made in writing by the Partners;

B. The withdrawal or Bankruptcy of a General Partner if the Partnership is not continued in accordance with Section 8.5 hereof;

C. Any event which shall make it unlawful for the existence of the Partnership to be continued; or

D. The sale or other disposition of the Property or of all or substantially all of the real property assets of the Partnership.

9.2 Actions of Liquidating Agent Upon Dissolution.

Upon the dissolution of the Partnership, the Partnership shall be liquidated in accordance with this Article IX and the Uniform Act. The liquidation shall be conducted and supervised by the General Partner or, if there be no General Partner, by a person who shall be designated for such purpose by the owners of at least 51% of the Interests (the General Partner or such person so designated being hereinafter referred to as the "Liquidating Agent"). The Liquidating Agent shall have all of the rights in connection with the liquidation and termination of the Partnership that a general partner would have with respect to the assets and liabilities of the Partnership during the term of the Partnership, and the Liquidating Agent is hereby expressly authorized and empowered to effectuate the liquidation and termination of the Partnership and the transfer of any assets and liabilities of the Partnership. The Liquidating Agent shall have the right from time to time, by revocable powers of attorney, to delegate to one or more persons any or all of such rights and powers and the authority and power to execute documents in connection therewith, and to fix the reasonable compensation of each such person, which compensation shall be charged as an expense of liquidation. The Liquidating Agent is also expressly authorized to distribute the Partnership's property to the Partners subject to liens.

9.3 Statements on Termination. Each Partner shall be furnished with a statement prepared by the Liquidating Agent which shall set forth the assets and liabilities of the Partnership as at the date of complete liquidation, and each Partner's share thereof. Upon compliance with the distribution plan set forth in Section 9.4 hereof, the Partners shall cease to be such, and the Liquidating Agent shall execute, acknowledge and cause to be filed a certificate of termination of the Partnership.

9.4 Priority on Liquidation; Distribution of Non-Liquid Assetss.

A. The Liquidating Agent shall, to the extent feasible, liquidate the assets of the Partnership as promptly as shall be practicable. To the extent the proceeds are sufficient therefor, as the Liquidating Agent shall deem appropriate, the proceeds of such liquidation shall be applied to pay any debts or liabilities of the Partnership other than to Partners and then in accordance with the provisions of Section 7.2.C hereof.

B. If, in the sole discretion of the Liquidating Agent, he shall determine that it is not feasible to liquidate all or part of the assets of the Partnership or that an immediate sale of all or part of such assets would cause an undue loss to the Partners, the Liquidating Agent shall cause the fair market value of the assets not so liquidated to be determined by independent appraisal. Such assets, as so appraised, shall be retained or distributed by the Liquidating Agent as follows:

(i) The Liquidating Agent shall retain assets having a value (which value shall be equal to the fair market value of such assets less the amount of any liability related thereto) equal to the amount by which the net proceeds of the liquidated assets are insufficient to satisfy the requirements of subparagraph (i) of Section 7.2.C hereof; and

(ii) The remaining assets shall be distributed to the Partners pursuant to subparagraphs (ii) and (iii) of Section 7.2.C hereof.

Any distribution of assets in kind shall be distributed on the basis of the fair market value thereof and any Partner entitled to any interest in such assets shall receive such interest therein as a tenant-in-common with all other Partners so entitled. If the Liquidating Agent, in his sole discretion, deems it not feasible to distribute to each Partner an aliquot share of each asset, the Liquidating Agent may allocate and distribute specific assets to one or more Partners as tenants-in-common as the Liquidating Agent shall determine to be fair and equitable.

9.5 Orderly Liquidation. A reasonable time shall be allowed for the orderly liquidation of the assets of the Partnership and the discharge of liabilities so as to minimize the losses normally attendant upon a liquidation.

9.6 No Goodwill Value. At no time during continuation of the Partnership shall any value ever be placed on the Partnership name, or the right to its use, or to the goodwill appertaining to the Partnership or its business, either as among the Partners or for the purpose of determining the value of any Interest nor shall the legal representatives of any Partner have any right to claim any such value. In the event of a termination and dissolution of the Partnership as provided in this Agreement, neither the Partnership name, nor the right to its use, nor the same goodwill, if any, shall be considered as an asset of the Partnership, and no valuation shall be put thereon for the purpose of liquidation or distribution, or for any other purpose whatsoever; nor shall any value ever be placed thereon as between the remaining or surviving Partners and the legal representatives of the estate of any deceased, insane, incompetent or bankrupt Partner.

AMENDMENT

Section 8.7 of the Limited Partnership Agreement is hereby deleted in its entirety and replaced with a new Section 8.7, which reads as follows:

"8.7 Options.

A. The General Partner shall at any time have the right to purchase and Lois M. Weinstein or a trust for the benefit of Lois M. Weinstein, as a Limited Partner ("Weinstein"), shall at any time have the right to cause the General Partner to purchase the Interest of Weinstein, provided, however, that for a period of two (2) years from the date of death of Sklar, Weinstein shall not be permitted to require the General Partner to purchase, and the General Partner shall not have the right to purchase, Weinstein's Interest. If at the time of the death of Sklar an Option Notice has been given by Weinstein to the General Partner or by the General Partner to Weinstein but the purchase price has not been determined in accordance with Section 8.7.B. hereof, such Option Notice shall become null and void and no further Option Notice shall be given by either the General Partner or Weinstein until the expiration of two (2) years from the date of death of Sklar. Notice of the exercise of the foregoing rights shall be given by a notice from Weinstein to the General Partner, or vice versa, as the case may be. The purchase price for Weinstein's Interest shall be as specified in Section 8.7.B. hereof and the purchase of Weinstein's Interest shall take place at the offices of the Partnership (the "Closing") within sixty (60) days after the purchase price thereof is determined in accordance with Section 8.7.B. hereof.

The purchase price shall be paid as follows: an amount thereof equal to Weinstein's Percentage Interest in the cash, liquid assets and marketable securities of the Partnership on the date the purchase price is determined (the "Cash Assets") plus ten percent (10%) of an amount determined by deducting from the purchase price the amount of the Cash Assets, in cash or certified check at the Closing; the balance, by the execution and delivery of a promissory note (the "Note") payable to the order of Weinstein at a New York bank, dated as of the Closing, payable in annual installments of principal, each in the amount of one-ninth of the initial principal amount of the Note with interest payable quarterly on the unpaid balance at the Prime Rate on the first day of each quarter commencing with the date of Closing. The Note shall also provide for mandatory prepayment of an amount not to exceed Weinstein's Percentage Interest of any Capital Proceeds received by the Partnership. Any prepayments under the Note shall be applied on account of the last installment becoming due. In the event of default as to the timely payment of interest and principal on the Note or in the event of the Bankruptcy of the Partnership or the General Partner, the Note shall, upon the election of Weinstein, become immediately due and payable upon fifteen (15) days' notice. As collateral security for the Note, the Partnership shall provide for a mortgage covering the Property and any other real property of the Partnership, subordinated to any existing mortgage covering such property and providing for subordination for any future mortgage thereon so long as the proceeds thereof shall be used to prepay the Note in accordance with this Section.

At the Closing, the General Partner shall deliver to Weinstein an agreement of indemnification to hold Weinstein harmless from and against any cost, loss, damage or expense (including reasonable professional fees) arising by reason of any debts, liabilities or obligations of the Partnership owing as of the date of the Closing, and by reason of any transaction by, for, or on behalf of the Partnership occurring prior to such date, and by reason of any matter or thing done, suffered or transacted under the Partnership name subsequent to such date.

B. The purchase price for Weinstein's Interest shall be the Capital Account of Weinstein determined as of the close of business on the date that the Option Notice is given, subject to the following provisions:

Weinstein's Capital Account shall be computed by the Accountant, in accordance with accounting principles regularly followed by the Partnership, and in cases not covered by such practices, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and shall include and reflect Weinstein's Capital Account as of the end of the last fiscal year as shown on the books and records of the Partnership, increased or decreased by Weinstein's Interest in profits or losses for the period from the beginning of the fiscal year in which the Option Notice is given until the date that the Option Notice is given, and increased by contributions and decreased by withdrawals. For purposes of this Section 8.7.B., any unrealized appreciation or unrealized depreciation in the value of the assets of the Partnership shall be deemed to be profits and losses realized by the Partnership immediately prior to the date of the Option Notice. The terms "unrealized appreciation" or "unrealized depreciation" shall mean the difference between the fair market value of such assets and the Partnership basis for such assets. In determining the fair market value of the Partnership's assets, other than real property or interests in real property, the Accountant shall use the principles set forth in Treasury Regulation §20.2031 with no value for goodwill. In determining the fair market value of the real property or interests in real property owned by the Partnership, the Accountant shall rely upon any written evaluation agreed upon and subscribed by all of the Partners or shall use the written appraisal of an appraiser chosen by the mutual agreement of all of the Partners, provided, however, that if the Partners cannot mutually agree upon an appraiser within fifteen (15) days after the Option Notice is given, the General Partner shall (by vote of a majority in interest of the General Partners), and Weinstein shall appoint an appraiser and the two appraisers so chosen shall select a third appraiser and such value shall be determined by averaging the two (2) closest appraisals. The expenses of any appraiser shall be borne by the Partnership. The General Partner shall make available to the appraisers all relevant financial and other information concerning the business and assets of the Partnership including the terms and conditions of any bona fide offer received by the Partnership from third parties for the purchase of the Property or the Partnership's other real property assets.

A statement showing the Capital Account of Weinstein as so adjusted and the supporting items (including, without limitation, a copy of the appraisal(s) relied on) shall be completed by the Accountant and copies delivered to the Partners no later than ninety (90) days after the date the Option Notice is given which date shall be deemed to be the date on which the purchase price is determined. The amount of Weinstein's Capital Account as adjusted to reflect the fair market value of the Partnership assets, as set out in the Accountant's statement, shall constitute and be deemed to be the purchase price for Weinstein's Interest, binding upon all parties hereto.

If during the period of one (1) year subsequent to a Closing pursuant to an Option Notice delivered by the General Partner to Weinstein the Property or any other real property asset of the Partnership is sold at a price which exceeds the agreed or appraised value of such property under Section 8.7.B. hereof so that the purchase price of Weinstein's Interest would be increased had the actual sales price been used in Section 8.7.B. in lieu of the value actually used, then the amount of such increase shall be deemed to be the additional purchase price under Section 8.7.B. hereof and the full amount of such increase shall be added to the then amount of the Note theretofore issued pursuant to Section 8.7.A. Any such increase shall not limit or restrict the Partnership's obligations to make mandatory prepayments of the Note in accordance with Section 8.7.A. hereof.

C. During the period between the giving of the Option Notice and the date of the Closing (or the nullification of the Option Notice pursuant to Section 8.7.A. hereof), Weinstein shall continue to be entitled to the allocation of profits and losses provided in Section 7.1 and the distributions and application of cash provided in Section 7.2, and, if Lois M. Weinstein is employed by the Partnership at the date of the Option Notice, the terms of such employment shall not be changed adversely to her. Any changes in Weinstein's Capital Account arising from the allocation of profits or losses shall be reflected in the purchase price payable at the Closing. If any arms-length transaction giving rise to Capital Proceeds occurs between the Option Notice and the date of the Closing, the valuation of the property involved in such transaction shall, for purposes of determining the purchase price pursuant to Section 8.7.B. hereof, be adjusted to reflect such transaction, and any Capital Proceeds arising from such transaction which are distributed to Weinstein prior to the Closing shall be considered to be prepayment of the amount otherwise payable at the Closing.

D. No current or future Limited Partner other than Weinstein shall have any rights under Section 8.7 hereof. Additionally, Weinstein shall not be able to sell, exchange, or otherwise transfer Weinstein's rights under Section 8.7 hereof."

RATIFICATION

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Partners ratify and reaffirm the Limited Partnership Agreement in all other respects except as modified by this First Amendment to the Limited Partnership Agreement.
