Such members' names and addresses shall be set forth in the Books and Records of this Company.
2. The vote of a majority in interest of the members entitled to vote shall be required to admit a person as a new member and issue such person a Membership Interest in this Company. Such new member shall not be entitled to any retroactive allocation of income or losses, or taxable deductions heretofore incurred by the Company.
3. This Company shall keep book and records pursuant to Sec. 1102 of the New York Limited Liability Company Law, either in written form or in other than written form if easily converted into such written form within a reasonable time. Such books and records shall be maintained on a cash basis pursuant to this Agreement, and the Accounting Year of this Company shall end on December 31.
4. Each member may inspect a copy, at his own expense, for any purpose reasonably related to such member's interest as a member, the Articles of Organization, the Operating Agreement, minutes of any meeting of members and all tax returns or financial statements of the Company for the three years immediately preceding his inspection, and other information regarding the affairs of this Company as is just and reasonable.
5. No member shall be personally liable for any debts, obligations or liabilities of this Company or of any other Company, whether such debt arose in contract, tort or otherwise. However, such member shall be personally liable for payment of his Capital Contribution or for any other matter which may be set forth in this Operating Agreement. A member shall have the option to waive such limitation of liability pursuant to Section 609 of the New York Limited Liability Company Law and may be legally liable pursuant to other applicable law in his capacity as a member.

6. The vote of at least two-thirds in interest of the members entitled to vote thereon shall be required to approve the sale, exchange, lease, mortgage, pledge or other transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of this Company.

7. As the management of this Company is vested in certain members, then such members are agents of this Company for the purpose of its business and the act of every such member, including the execution in the name of this Company of any instrument, for apparently carrying on in the usual way the business of this Company, shall bind this Company unless it is contrary to Sec. 412 of the New York Limited Liability Law.

8. The members of this Company shall be permitted to be involved in the management of other entities and activities and to participate in such other business interests and receive income or profits therefrom which do not adversely affect their capacity to exercise their obligations to this Company.

9. Except as set forth in this Agreement, no member shall have the unconditional right to give, sell, assign, pledge, hypothecate, exchange or otherwise transfer to another, all or any part of his Membership Interest in this Company. Prior to a member securing the right to sell, assign, pledge, hypothecate, exchange or otherwise transfer all or part of his Membership interest in this Company to another, such member must secure from the members such consent by vote or in writing of a majority in interest entitled to vote thereon, not including the member seeking such right. Nothing herein shall be deemed to prevent a member from granting an assignee the right to become a member upon condition that Sec. 604 of the New York Limited Liability Company Law is satisfied.

10. The member who desires to transfer his Membership Interest, shall give written notification of the proposed transfer to each of the other members or to the Manager, as the case may be, of his intention to sell his Membership Interest. Each other member shall have the right of first refusal to purchase all of such Membership Interest upon such terms and conditions as were set forth in the notification of proposed transfer. Nothing herein shall be deemed to prevent all of the remaining members, if they so desire, to accept the terms of the notification of proposed transfer, in writing, on behalf of all of such remaining members. The failure to respond to the member seeking to transfer his Membership Interest within 30 days shall result in the termination of such other member's right of first refusal. Should such member or members desire to exercise their right of first refusal on the terms set forth in the written notification of transfer, then the time, place and date of closing as designated by the members purchasing such Membership Interest shall be within 90 days from the date of such written consent to exercise such right of first refusal.

(No further text on this page)

11. A member may withdraw as a member of this Company with the vote or written consent of at least two-thirds in interest of the members, other than the member who proposes to withdraw as a member. If such consent is not given, a member may withdraw upon not less than six (6) months prior written notice to this Company, provided such withdrawal does not breach this Operating Agreement, the New York Limited Liability Company Law or any other contractual obligation between such proposed withdrawing member and this Company or its other members. Should such breach occur, then the withdrawing member may be liable for damages as a result thereof.

ARTICLE IV MEETINGS

1. This Company shall hold its annual meeting of members on the 28th day of November, or at such other time as shall be determined by vote or written consent of membership interests, at 174 Fifth Avenue, Suite 301, New York, New York 10010 or at such other place also determined by vote or written consent of Membership Interests, for the purpose of transacting such business as may come before such meeting. Special Meetings may be called for any purpose by a manager or any member or group of members holding not less than ten percent of the Membership Interest.

2. Whenever it is anticipated that members will be required or permitted to take any action by vote at a meeting, written notice shall be given stating the place, date and hour of the meeting, stating the purpose of such meeting, and under whose direction such meeting has been called. Such notice of meeting shall be given personally or by first class mail, not less than ten nor more than fifty days before the date of such meeting. Such notice of meeting need not be given to any member who submits a signed waiver of notice, in person or by proxy, whether before or after the meeting.

3. A majority in interest of the members, in person or by proxy, entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of members for the transaction of any business. The members present, despite not being a quorum, may adjourn the meeting. No notice of adjourned meeting is necessary if the time and place of the adjourned meeting is announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. At a meeting in which a quorum is initially present, such quorum is not broken by the subsequent withdrawal of any member, despite the fact that such withdrawal results in less than a quorum being present and all votes taken are binding upon the members of this Company. All acts at a meeting of members at which a quorum is present, shall be the act of all the members and be binding upon them, except such vote requires a greater proportion or number of membership interests pursuant to the New York Limited Liability Company Law, or the Articles of Organization or this Agreement.

4. A member may vote in person by proxy executed in writing by a member. Every proxy so executed shall be revocable at the will of the member. Such proxy shall automatically be revoked, if prior to its use, the death or incompetence of the member occurred, and notice of such death or adjudication of incompetence is received by the Proxy Holder. A proxy is presumed to be revoked, whether or not it is stated to be irrevocable, if the member who executed such proxy, sells his Membership Interest prior to the date such proxy is scheduled to be exercised.

5. Whenever the members of this Company are required or permitted to take any action by vote, such action may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by the members who hold the voting interests having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all of the members entitled to vote therein were present and voted and shall be delivered to the office of this Company, its principal place of business or a manager, employee or agent of this Company. Delivery made to the office of this Company shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested.

6. Every written consent shall bear the date of signature of each member who signs the consent, and no written consent shall be effective to take the action referred to therein unless, within sixty days of the earliest dated consent delivered in the manner required by this paragraph to this Company, written consents signed by a sufficient number of members to take the action are delivered to the office of this Company, its principal place of business or a manager, employee or agent of this Company having custody of the records of this Company. Delivery made to such office, principal place of business or manager, employee or agent shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested.

7. Two or more members may enter into a binding agreement, in writing and executed by the members seeking to be bound, which provides that the Membership Interests held by them shall be voted in accordance with such Agreement or pursuant to any lawful procedure agreed upon by them.

However, if such member knew or should have known that such distribution was, at the time of such distribution, contrary to such statute, then, in that event, such member shall be liable to this Company for the amount of such distribution.
6. No member shall receive from this Company any part or portion of his Capital Contribution until all liabilities and debts of this Company have been paid and there remains sufficient assets in this Company sufficient to pay them, without placing the solvency of this Company in a reasonably disabling position. A statement from the Company's accountant to this effect shall be placed in the Books and Records of this Company.
7. The profits and losses of this Company and all other distributions shall be allocated among the members on the basis of the ratio of the monetary value of the Member Capital Account of each member to the total value of all Member Capital Accounts in this Company. All distributions to a member of this Company shall be offset by any amounts owing to this Company by such member. No distributions shall be made which render this Company insolvent.
