Article III.

MANAGEMENT

Section 3.1. Management by the Managing Director.

The Managing Director shall have all authority, rights and powers in the management of the Company business to do any and all acts and things necessary, proper, appropriate, advisable, incidental or convenient to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement. Any action taken by the Managing Director on behalf of the Company in accordance with the foregoing provisions shall constitute the act of and shall serve to bind the Company. If VERONIQUE BICH fails to select a successor Managing Director, then a successor Managing Director shall be selected by the vote or consent of a Majority-in-Interest of the Members; provided, however, that if BRUNO BICH is a Member, he may not vote or consent for himself to serve as successor Managing Director or for a successor Managing Director who is related or subordinate to him within the meaning of Section 672(c) of the Code.

(c) Delegation of Powers. The Managing Director may by instrument in writing delegate its powers to officers or agents or employees of the Company or of any Member or to any other Person; provided, however, that no Person shall be entitled to rely on such delegation unless presented with a copy of such written instrument.

(d) Bank Accounts. The Managing Director shall cause the Company to open and maintain bank accounts, and all funds of every kind and nature received by the Company shall be deposited in such accounts. Signatories for such accounts shall be authorized from time to time by the Managing Director.

(e) Investment Advisers. The Managing Director may appoint investment counsel or money managers, or fee-based financial planners (hereafter "advisers"), including, but not limited to, any Member in the Company, and, subject to Section 3.6 hereof, delegate to such advisers such investment powers and responsibilities as the Managing Director may deem proper. Such investment powers and responsibilities may include, but not be limited to, (i) the sale or purchase of securities or any other investments of the LLC, (ii) determining the minimum and maximum prices at which such securities shall be sold or purchased or at which any other investments of the LLC shall be sold or purchased, (iii) selection of broker(s) or agent(s) to be employed in connection with the sale, purchase and management of securities or any other investments of the LLC, and (iv) execution of any and all documents related to the sale, purchase and management of securities or any other investments of the LLC on behalf of the LLC. The Managing Director shall select an adviser or advisers suitable to exercise the delegated function; shall establish the scope and terms of the delegation consistent with the purposes of this Agreement; and shall periodically review the advisers' exercise of the delegated function and compliance with the scope and terms of the delegation. Any Member (including an Affiliate thereof) may engage in any other businesses or activities, irrespective of whether any such business is similar to the activities of the Company. No Member shall have any right to participate in any manner in any profits or income earned or derived by or accruing to other Members or their Affiliates from the conduct of any activities other than the activities of the Company.

A Member does not violate a duty or obligation to the Company merely because the Member's conduct furthers the Member's own interest. A Member may lend money to and transact other business with the Company. The rights and obligations of a Member who lends money to or transacts business with the Company are the same as those of a person who is not a Member, subject to other applicable law. No transaction with the Company shall be void or voidable solely because a Member has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction if the transaction is fair and reasonable to the Company.

Section 3.4. Standard of Care. Each Member shall discharge the Member's duties to the Company and the other Members in good faith and with that degree of care that an ordinarily prudent person in a similar position would use under similar circumstances. In discharging his, her or its duties, a Member shall be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the records required to be maintained under the Act and upon such information, opinions, reports or statements by any Person as to matters the Member reasonably believes are within such other Person's professional or expert competence and who has been selected with reasonable care by or on behalf of the Company, including information, opinions, reports or statements as to the value and amount of the assets, liabilities, profits or losses of the Company or any other facts pertinent to the existence and amount of assets from which distributions to Members might properly be paid. The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each Member against any loss, damage or expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by the Member as a result of any act performed or omitted on behalf of the Company or in furtherance of the Company's interests without, however, relieving the Member of liability for failure to perform his, her or its duties in accordance with the standards set forth herein. The satisfaction of any indemnification and any holding harmless shall be from and limited to Company property and the other Members shall not have any personal liability on account thereof.

Section 3.5. Fiduciary Obligation of Managing Director. The Managing Director shall owe a duty of loyalty and a duty of care to the Company and to the Members.

Section 3.6. Life Insurance Owned by the Company. If the Company shall own any life insurance policy insuring the life of any Member or the Managing Director, or possess any incident of ownership (as defined in Section 2042 of the Code and any corresponding Treasury Regulations) with respect to any such policy, the insured Member or insured Managing Director, as the case may be, shall have no right or power to exercise or participate in the exercise of any of the incidents of ownership with respect to such policy, including but not limited to, the right to borrow against the policy, the right to change or prevent any change in the beneficiary designation under such policy, the right to surrender the policy or any portion thereof for its cash surrender value or to cancel or terminate the policy. Any exercise of any incident of ownership in any such policy shall be exercised only by the Managing Director other than the insured Managing Director, or if none, by a Majority-in-Interest of the Members other than the insured Member. Any decision of the Company to acquire or dispose of a life insurance policy insuring the life of any Member or Managing Director shall be made with the approval of the Managing Director other than the insured or proposed insured Managing Director, or if none, with the approval of a majority-in-interest of the Members other than the insured or proposed insured Member, and without any participation by or from the insured Member or insured Managing Director, as the case may be.

Article V.

RESIGNATION

Section 5.1. Resignation by Managing Director. The Managing Director may resign as Managing Director of the Company prior to the dissolution and winding up of the Company by providing 30 days' written notice to the Members of the Company; provided, however, in accordance with Section 5.2 hereof, if the Managing Director is also a Member, the Managing Director shall remain a Member of the Company.

Section 5.2. No Resignation by Members. No Member may resign from the Company prior to the dissolution and winding up of the Company.

Article VI.

TRANSFER OF INTERESTS; ADDITIONAL MEMBERS

Section 6.1. Restrictions On Transfer. No Interest in the Company may be Transferred without the written consent of the Managing Director, which consent may be given or withheld in the sole discretion of the Managing Director. Section 6.2. Additional Interests. Additional Interests in the Company may be issued and sold by the Company in the Managing Director's discretion to any Person for fair market value, as determined by the Managing Director using his reasonable business judgment, and under such terms as deemed advisable by the Managing Director.

Section 6.3. Admission of Members. A Transferee, or any Person who acquires an Interest directly from the Company (a "Direct Purchaser"), may not be admitted as a Member unless all of the following conditions have been met:

(d) The Transferee or Direct Purchaser has paid or agreed to pay, as the Managing Director may determine, all reasonable expenses relating to such admission.

In the event of the admission of new or additional Members, Exhibits A and B hereto shall be amended accordingly.

Section 6.4. Status of Transferee. A Transferee who is not admitted as a Member shall be entitled only to receive that share of profits, losses and distributions, and such allocation of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit or similar item to which the Transferor would otherwise be entitled with respect to the Interest transferred, and shall not have the rights of a Member of the Company under the Act or this Agreement, including without limitation the right to obtain any information on account of the Company's transactions, to inspect the Company's books or to vote with the Members on, or to grant or withhold consents or approvals of, any matter. The Company shall, however, if a Transferee and Transferor jointly advise the Company in writing of a Transfer of an Interest, furnish the Transferee with pertinent tax information at the end of each Fiscal Year.

Section 6.5. Death, Dissolution, Bankruptcy or Incompetency of a Member. Upon the death, dissolution, adjudication of bankruptcy or adjudication of incompetency of a Member, such Member's successors, executors, administrators or legal representatives shall have all the rights of the Member (except as provided by the last sentence of this Section 6.5.) for the purpose of settling or managing such Member's estate. However, such successors, executors, administrators or legal representatives shall not have the right to become a Member in the place of their predecessor in interest unless they satisfy the terms of Section 6.3 hereof.

The Liquidating Member shall cause a full accounting of the assets and liabilities of the Company to be taken and shall cause the assets to be liquidated and the business to be wound-up as promptly as possible by either or both of the following methods: (1) selling the Company assets and distributing the net proceeds therefrom (after the payment of Company liabilities) to each Member in satisfaction of its Capital Account; or (2) distributing the Company assets to the Members in kind and debiting the Capital Account of each Member with the fair market value of such assets, each Member accepting an undivided interest in the Company assets (subject to their liabilities) in proportion to and to the extent of each Member's positive Capital Account balance after allocating and crediting to the Capital Accounts the unrealized gain or loss to the Members as if such gain or loss had been recognized and allocated pursuant to Section 2.5.

Any bid made by a Member or Members for all or any portion of the assets shall be made, if at all, within thirty (30) days after the Liquidating Member or any other Member shall have requested such bids. A copy of each bid shall be delivered by the Liquidating Member to each Member. Unless otherwise agreed by all Members, no Member shall be entitled to raise its bid after submission thereof, whether in response to a bid received by the Company from any other Member or third party, or otherwise.
